

STANDARD TERMS OF PURCHASE

1. DEFINITIONS AND FORMATION OF CONTRACT

1.1 In these terms:

“Dynapac” means Dynapac UK Limited registered office

“Dynapac Property” means materials, equipment, tooling and/or any other tangible or intangible property belonging to Dynapac or for which Dynapac is responsible.

“Conditions” means the terms and conditions set out herein.

“Contract” means the terms and conditions for the supply of Products and/or Services to Dynapac, as set out in the Purchase Order for such Products or Services, and these Conditions. If there is inconsistency between the terms of the Purchase Order and these Conditions, the former shall prevail. For the sake of clarity, the Supplier’s terms & conditions of supply are not accepted by Dynapac and do not form part of the Contract.

“Products” means the Products described in a Purchase Order.

“Purchase Order” means Dynapac’s official purchase order to which these Conditions are annexed issued by Dynapac to the Supplier and shall include the Conditions and any drawings, schedules, Specifications and other attachments thereto.

“Services” means the services described in a Purchase Order.

“Specification” means the specifications for the Products and/or the Services as set out or referenced in a Purchase Order and or any current drawings or other documentation as agreed between the Parties

“Supplier” means the company or person to whom a Purchase Order is made.

1.2. A Contract shall be formed on acceptance of the Purchase Order by the Supplier.

1.3 Any of the following acts shall constitute conclusive acceptance by the Supplier of the Purchase Order and the Conditions; any written (including electronic) acceptance, or commencement of the supply of Products or performance of the Services.

1.4 These Conditions shall apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms on which any quotation has been given to Dynapac or subject to which a Purchase Order is accepted or purported to be accepted by the Supplier.

2. INSPECTION, AND PERFORMANCE OF PRODUCTS

2.1 Time is of the essence.

2.2 The Supplier grants Dynapac the right to inspect any Products at any time at Supplier’s premises or elsewhere. The Supplier shall give Dynapac reasonable advance notice of when any completed Products will be ready for inspection. Inspection by Dynapac of any Products shall not relieve the Supplier of responsibility or liability for those Products and shall not imply acceptance thereof. Dynapac shall be entitled to waive such right of inspection prior to and without prejudice to its right to reject Products after or any other legal rights it may have.

2.3 Supplier shall deliver the Products in accordance with (i) the prices and schedules stated in Purchase Order and (ii) Incoterms 2010 DDP the site specified in the Purchase Order and (iii) the Contract.

2.5 Title to all or any part of the Products and/or Services shall pass to Dynapac on the earlier of (i) payment for such Products or Services or part thereof; and (ii) of such Products or Services. Where title to all or any part of the Products has passed to Dynapac but the Products remain in possession of the Supplier, the Supplier shall clearly label the Products as the property of Dynapac and store the Products separately from all other Products.

- 2.6 Dynapac may reject any Products delivered which are not in accordance with the Contract, and shall not be deemed to have accepted any Products, notwithstanding that Dynapac has paid for the Products, until Dynapac has had a reasonable time to inspect them following or, if later, within a reasonable time after any latent defect in the Products has become apparent.
- 2.7 Without prejudice to any other rights Dynapac may have under the Contract or otherwise, if the Supplier fails to deliver the Products in accordance with the terms of the Contract or Dynapac rejects the Products pursuant to Condition 2.6, then Dynapac shall be entitled, at its option, to:
- 2.7.1 require the Supplier, at its cost, to remove, repair or replace the undelivered or rejected Products, as expeditiously as reasonably practicable which Products shall then immediately be held at the risk of the Supplier; and/or
- 2.7.2 obtain replacement Products from a third party and be reimbursed on demand by the Supplier for all related reasonable costs and expenses; and/or
- 2.7.3 terminate the Contract forthwith and refuse to accept any further consignment of Products under the Contract; and/or
- 2.7.4 suspend the Contract and refuse to accept any further Products from the Supplier.
- 2.8 The Supplier shall comply with all package specifications issued by Dynapac from time to time and the majority of all packaging supplied by the Supplier shall be recoverable or recyclable and, if requested by Dynapac, collected from Dynapac free of charge.
- 2.9 Dynapac reserves the right to call for certificates of raw materials and test certificates for materials and equipment used in the manufacture of the Products.

3 PERFORMANCE OF THE SERVICES

- 3.1 Without prejudice to any other rights Dynapac may have under the Contract or otherwise, if the Supplier fails to perform the Services in accordance with the terms of the Contract including these Terms and Conditions and by the specified date or Dynapac rejects the Services, then Dynapac shall be entitled, at its option, to:
- 3.1.1 require the Supplier, at its cost, to re-perform the Services as expeditiously as reasonably practicable; and/or
- 3.1.2 obtain services from a third party and be reimbursed by the Supplier for all related reasonable costs and expenses; and/or
- 3.1.3 terminate the Contract forthwith and refuse to accept any further performance of Services under the Contract.
- 3.2 If the Supplier's employees are required to work on a Dynapac site:
- 3.2.1 Materials used are at the Supplier's own risk until acceptance by Dynapac.
- 3.2.2 The Supplier shall be responsible for the safe keeping of all property belonging to it or within its control including, without limitation, plant, equipment, tools and documents and shall ensure that the same are properly maintained and are in good working order and repair and are accompanied by all necessary certificates and records. The Supplier shall perform the Services to ensure that all such property is handled and stored in such a manner so that it does not cause injury, loss or death to persons or loss or damage to property.
- 3.2.3 The Supplier shall be responsible for ensuring at its own cost that all personnel engaged in the Services are supplied with and wear all safety gear and protective clothing appropriate to the Services to be provided. The Supplier shall not use any tools, equipment or other property belonging to or within the control of Dynapac without the prior consent of Dynapac. In the event that the Supplier uses such property, the Supplier will be responsible for its use and safekeeping.

3.2.4 The Supplier shall comply with Dynapac's Rules and Regulations at Dynapac's sites, details of which will be made available. A permit to work must be obtained from Dynapac prior to commencement of any work on site. Particular attention must be paid to the site safety rules, "No Smoking" requirements and other warning signs. The Supplier's employees shall attend such safety training as may be required by Dynapac.

3.2.5 Dynapac shall have the right to request the removal of any individual working at a Dynapac site without giving any reason.

3.2.6 The Supplier shall at its cost, when required by Dynapac, carry away all unwanted material arising from the execution of any works by the Supplier, and shall at all times leave the site clear and tidy to Dynapac's satisfaction. In carrying out these duties the Supplier shall comply with all relevant legislation, including environmental and waste disposal laws and regulations and warrants that it is properly licensed and registered to transport and store controlled and special waste arising in connection with the Services.

4. PRICE AND PAYMENT

4.1 The price(s) for the Products and Services shall be specified in the Purchase Order and shall remain fixed for the duration of the Contract.

4.2 The price payable for the Products and Services shall be:

4.2.1 exclusive of value added tax (which shall be payable by Dynapac subject to receipt of a VAT invoice) or other sales tax; and

4.2.2 inclusive of all charges for packaging, packing, shipping, carriage, insurance and of the Products and all duties, licences, permits and taxes (other than VAT) as may be payable in respect of Products or Services from time to time.

4.3 Dynapac shall make payment for the Products or Services 60 days after receipt of Supplier's duly completed and accurate invoice (including the Purchase Order number, note number and Supplier's VAT number) which invoices shall only be issued by the Supplier following of the relevant Products to Dynapac or following completion of the relevant Services.

4.4 Dynapac may withhold payments of any disputed or insufficiently documented amounts included in any invoice. Dynapac is entitled to set-off against the price sums owed to Dynapac by the Supplier.

5. DYNAPAC PROPERTY

The Supplier shall be fully responsible for, will maintain and, where relevant, will calibrate any Dynapac Property, including the safe and secure storage thereof, whilst in the Supplier's possession and will promptly replace or repair, as required by Dynapac, at the Supplier's own cost, any Dynapac Property lost or damaged by the Supplier. The Supplier shall stamp, tag or otherwise mark all relevant Dynapac Property in its possession with Dynapac's name and/or logo as indicative of Dynapac's ownership. The Supplier shall store the Dynapac Property in a specifically designated area at the Supplier's premises. The Supplier will return such property immediately on request and will allow access to Dynapac's personnel for the purpose of removing such Dynapac Property.

6. WARRANTIES AND GUARANTEE

6.1 The Supplier warrants that the Products and any parts or materials used in the performance of the Services will:

Dynapac
- Dynapac shall have the right to terminate its business relationship and any associated agreements with the Supplier if the Supplier is (or Dynapac reasonably believes that the Supplier is) in material breach of the Business Code of Practice or the Highest Ethical Standards and, in the case of breaches which are capable of remedy, the Supplier fails to remedy such breach, after written notification by Dynapac of such breach, within the cure period specified by Dynapac for such remedy. In determining the length of any cure period Dynapac shall act reasonably, having regard to the severity and nature of the breach.
- 12.2 The Supplier shall comply with all applicable laws, statutes, and regulations relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption including but not limited to the Bribery Act 2010 and the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act as amended from time to time, and generally in the course of conducting business behave ethically, with integrity and mutual respect (the “Relevant Requirements”); have and shall maintain in place throughout the term of this agreement its own policies and procedures, including but not limited to adequate procedures under the Bribery Act 2010 and the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, to ensure compliance with the Relevant Requirements by any of the Supplier’s employees, officers, representatives and subcontractors and any person who acts for or on its behalf in connection with the performance of the Contract; warrant that no intermediary of any kind was used in the negotiation and conclusion of the Contract. Breach of this clause shall be deemed a material breach of the Contract. Dynapac shall be entitled to terminate the Contract or any part of it with immediate effect should it have reasonable grounds to suspect that this clause has been breached by the Supplier.
- 12.3 The Supplier warrants that the tantalum, tin, tungsten and gold in products which they supply to Dynapac does not directly or indirectly finance or benefit armed groups that are perpetrators of serious human rights abuses in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country. The Supplier shall exercise due diligence on the source and chain of custody of these minerals and make their due diligence measures available to Dynapac upon request.

13.GENERAL

- 13.1 The Supplier may not assign or sub-contract the Contract without the prior written consent of Dynapac . Dynapac may at any time assign, transfer, charge or deal in any manner with the Contract or any rights under it.
- 13.2 The Supplier may not, without the express prior written consent of Dynapac , sell or transfer to a third party the ownership of, or grant or permit to be retained any security interest over, any amount due from Dynapac to Supplier.

- 13.3 Time is of the essence for the performance of the Contract by the Supplier.
- 13.4 No term or provision of the Contract shall be enforceable by a third party (being any person other than the parties and their permitted assignees and successors).
- 13.5 No failure or delay on the part of Dynapac to exercise any power, right or remedy under the Contract shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise by Dynapac of any power, right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other power, right or remedy. No waiver by Dynapac shall be valid unless made in writing.
- 13.6 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between Dynapac and the Supplier relating to the sale and purchase of Products and/or Services. No amendment to or a variation of the Contract shall be effective unless agreed in writing by Dynapac .
- 13.7 All Contracts, acceptances, correspondence, specifications and other documents shall be in the English language and shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and Dynapac and the Supplier hereby submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts. Dynapac shall have the option to bring suit before the Courts of the domicile of the Supplier.
- 13.8 Dynapac reserves the right at any time to cancel the Purchase Order in whole or in part or to make any changes. Unless any cancellation or changes arise from the Supplier's default, Dynapac shall pay to the Supplier fair and reasonable compensation for the Supplier's work-in-progress at the time of change or termination but such compensation shall never include loss of anticipated profits or any economic or consequential loss it will only cover reasonable costs to date by the Supplier. The Supplier must provide proof of any costs incurred.
- 13.9 In the event that any term or provision of the Contract is declared null and void or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of the provisions of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.
- 13.10 Headings in the Conditions are for convenience only and do not affect their interpretation.
- 13.11 References to all laws, regulations and codes of practice shall be deemed to include all amendments or revisions thereto and re-enactments thereof as may be made from time to time.
